

I want to comment on the need to have environmental studies and also have environmentally sound radio transmitters. The unfortunate death of various birds, including song birds is preventable and should be pursued diligently. Birds are to be saved, not become a disposable commodity. Thankyou. Susan Eakins